

SOCIETY

COMINGS AND GOINGS OF THE SMART SET

Miss Jean Mead left also with the Castles.

Miss McCue is visiting at Schofield Barracks as the guest of Mrs. Duenn.

Mrs. Oscar J. Phillips is going to entertain at luncheon on Tuesday of next week.

Miss Mabel Carter and Mr. Frank Benson are to be married the latter part of next week.

General and Mrs. John P. Wisser have invitations out for a dinner on Tuesday evening of next week.

Mrs. Frederick Phisterer entertained at a swimming party and supper on Tuesday evening of this week.

Mrs. C. H. Sthill and his charming daughter are guests of the Macdonald Hotel. They are here on a visit and came from New Zealand.

Mr. E. Nelson of Minneapolis is a guest of the Macdonald and is thoroughly enjoying his visit to the Isles of peace.

Mrs. Harry Lewis was hostess at a large pot luncheon held on Monday at the Mauna mountain house of the Robert Shingles.

Miss Krusi and Miss Stielz are two young ladies who are on their first visit to Honolulu and are guests at the Young hotel.

Judge and Mrs. Henry E. Cooper are leaving next week for a visit to the east coast, where they will be with their three daughters.

Mr. Courtland Palmer and his friend, Mr. Sherwood, leave here on the 20th for a visit to the Orient. They plan to be back here about the first week in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason F. Prosser are leaving Honolulu for the Orient on April 6. The Prossers plan to be gone about three months.

Mr. William Phillips, who left here to join the colors, is a member of the aviation corps, and finds his work both interesting and exciting.

Mrs. Dora Ahlborn has invitations out for a bridge luncheon at the Country Club, on Tuesday of next week.

Miss Helen Dow left on the Great Northern on Thursday evening for San Francisco to enter Heald's Business College.

Mrs. Donald Ross was an outgoing passenger on the Great Northern on Thursday evening. Mrs. Ross expects to be gone for three months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Thurston left on the Great Northern on Thursday evening for a brief trip they plan to be gone about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes left on the Great Northern for a long trip. Mrs. Barnes plans to be gone for six months. Mr. Barnes will return in about three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle have invited a company of friends to spend the coming Sunday with them at the Dunes. A delightful time is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack London are having a company of friends share Sunday night dinner with them. It is a weekly custom with this talented couple.

Dr. and Mrs. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Hinkle, wife of the commanding officer of Fort Armstrong. She is shortly to leave for her husband's new post at the Presidio, San Francisco.

Mrs. W. R. Castle for a motor ride in and about the city on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hawes are pleasantly domiciled in Princess Kawana-koa's home on Pensacola street, where they will be at home to their large number of friends.

Mr. Robert W. Shingle has gone to San Francisco to meet Mrs. Shingle, who was hurriedly called to Washington on account of the serious illness of her sister, Princess Kawana-koa.

Miss McDuffy and Miss Smith are visitors from the mainland, who are enjoying swimming, golfing and horseback riding here. They are now guests at Haleiwa Hotel.

The Hind girls, who have been in town for a fortnight as the guests of Miss Laura Low, left for their Hawaii home on Thursday. Miss Low has gone with them on a short visit.

Mrs. Darius Millet and Mr. and Mrs. Rawson of Chicago, who have been here for several months, left on the Great Northern for their homes. They are very popular and are coming again next winter.

Mr. Kessuth Marks of Chicago and his sister, Mrs. Marks Morgan of the same city, are guests of the Macdonald. They brought many letters to Hawaii and are enjoying their visit here.

Mr. David Anderson has been heard from. He is still at the center of war activities and reports himself well and happy. Mr. Anderson was always a great favorite here and his many friends are glad to hear from him.

Capt. and Mrs. Francis M. Hinkle, C. A. C., who have been stationed on the island for the past three years, leave on the April transport for their new post at the Presidio of San Francisco, at Fort Winfield Scott station.

Miss Elizabeth Carpenter and her sister, Miss Laura Carpenter, left Honolulu on Thursday night on the Great Northern, after a three months' visit. They were most popular and made friends every place they went.

Miss Katherine Garnet, who has been on the island of Hawaii since November as the guest of the Hurd, left for her mainland home this week. Her visit was a pleasant one and a continued round of gaiety kept this popular girl very busy.

The dinner-dance at the Haleiwa this evening is attracting a large crowd to this every popular hotel. Manager and Mrs. Clifford Kimball are popular and the evening drive should be fine.

Mrs. Helen Noonan is in San Francisco, where she has taken an apartment for the coming three months, when she will be joined by Mrs. Wilhelm Tenney and Mr. Vernon Tenney, who will return here for the summer.

Miss Eva Kelly of Pasadena, Cal., is a guest at the Moana and will be here for a month. Miss Kelly is a sister of Mrs. Charles Perkins so well known to many here. She is a friend of Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Cooper and the Arthur Browns.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis are guests at the Young hotel, enjoying and renewing friendships. This popular couple make always a very welcome addition to Honolulu society. Mrs. Lewis is one of the most charming of women and it is a pleasure to welcome them home again.

Mrs. Mabel Wing Castle and Miss Eleanor Castle were departing passengers on the Great Northern after a delightful three months spent "at home." Mrs. Castle and her charming daughter will be here a year from now to live permanently at their Pacific Heights home.

Dr. and Mrs. Humphris, who have such a large circle of friends in Honolulu from some years of residence here, are now at Cairo, Egypt. The doctor has charge of one of the large hospitals there, while Mrs. Humphris, like many capable women in Europe today, is doing her part by caring for the sick and wounded.

Mr. J. Jorgensen invited Mr. and Mrs. Jack London, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson, Dr. and Mrs. C. B. High, Miss Edith Williams and Mr. A. L. C. Atkinson for a day at the new Waialeale tunnel this week. It was a very delightful as well as instructive day. After luncheon the party motored back to Honolulu.

Dr. and Mrs. Gideon McD. Van Poole and Miss Brinkley were the guests of honor at a most charming dancing party this week given by Miss Edith Williams. The night was a delight to the dancers, it being wonderfully cool and pleasant. Toward midnight refreshments were served. About 75 friends came to do honor to Miss Williams' guests.

The Tyrrells, who have had a successful engagement in ballroom and fancy dancing at the rathskeller and Young hotel roof garden, are giving their services at the tea-dansant this afternoon to aid the war sufferers. On Tuesday the Tyrrells make their last appearance at the Young and a new set of entertainers will be there on Wednesday.

Mrs. Parrott and her daughter, Mrs. McCommas of California, are here on a visit. Mrs. Parrott belongs to the famous family of that name. The Parrotts were among the very first settlers in the Golden West and helped in no small way to make San Francisco the famous city it is.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gorman, brother and sister of Mrs. Hugh McCarrison, and uncle and aunt of Mrs. John Lucas, will leave on Wednesday for their home in Davenport, Iowa, after two months spent touring the "Isles of Peace." They are charmed with Honolulu and hope to return in the not too distant future.

Mrs. Helen G. Noonan, one of the leaders of the Country Club of Honolulu and a frequent visitor to the continental part of the United States, registered yesterday at the Palace. Mrs. Noonan will visit friends at Los Angeles and relatives in the East before returning home. Attorney Delphin M. Delmas, registering from Santa Monica, and R. F. Posey, a mining man of Westwood, Col., were among yesterday's guests at the Palace.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Moynihan and her two daughters, Miss Mary and Miss Josephine, were departing passengers on the Great Northern on Thursday evening, after a delightful visit of a month's duration. They are very loath to leave. The consoling part is they promise themselves the pleasure of another visit here. An agreeable feature of their visit was the meeting again of Professor Joaquim Wahrell and his charming family. Miss Moynihan was a pupil of Prof. Wahrell's for a long time.

Mrs. F. E. Trotter had a few friends in to spend Thursday afternoon with her. After a delightful hour of chat refreshments were served. Mrs. Trotter is almost a "Honolulu woman," having lived here several years. She and Dr. Trotter are great favorites, especially with the young folks. They are always in great demand to act as chaperones to the younger set. Mrs. Trotter's guests were Mrs. Rogers, who is a guest at the Pleasanton; Mrs. Soffie, Mrs. William Munter and Mrs. W. C. Hobby.

Among those who were hostesses at the Navy League dance in San Francisco were: Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, wife of Major-General Bell; Mrs. Charles A. Gove, wife of Rear-Admiral Gove; Mrs. Eleanor Martin, Mrs. Frederick Kohl, Mrs. W. T. Season, Mrs. Bernard Sinshelmer, Mrs. Samuel Knight, Mrs. Frank Heilm, Mrs. Squire V. Mooney, Mrs. James Shea, Mrs. William Hinkley Taylor, Mrs. Arthur Dutton, Mrs. D. C. Heger, Mrs. Charles Behlow, Mrs. Rudolph Van Norden, Mrs. C. Carpenter, Mrs. George Pope, Mrs. Prentiss Cobb Hale, Mrs. Charles Fee, Mrs. Ella M. Sexton, Miss Laura McKinstry, Mrs. Vincent Walsh, Mrs. Bruce Foulkes, Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Mrs. Alice Fredericks, Mrs. O. M. Saul, Mrs. Fred Perkins, Mrs. Thomas Dempsey, Mrs. Freda Smith, Mrs. James Frier, Mrs. A. Crofton, Mrs. W. W. Wymore, Mrs. A. M. Heynemann, Mrs. C. T. Caddis, Mrs. K. C. Crowley, Mrs. Francis Wright, Mrs. J. V. Moody, Mrs. Clara Darling, Mrs. Horace P. Merrill and others.

The young ladies who wore nurse's uniform of the army and navy and who carried into effect the leap year ballroom courtesies were: Misses Marion Black, E. Timlow, Jean Wheeler, E. Eyre, May Sherwood, Genevieve Bohin, rhyllia de Young, Hannah Hobart, Dorothy Coon, Ruth Welch, Marie Louise Black, Elizabeth Fee, Marcia Fee, Elsie Osbourne, Jean Murphy, Kathryn Farrell, Jean Farrell, P. Fottrell, Jean Fottrell, Gorda Smith, Ethel Maroney, Dorothy Allen, Ruth Perkins and others.

The Waterhouse Co., Ltd.
Underwood Typewriters.

YOUNG BUILDING.

FURNISH YOUR HOME RIGHT
By fitting it throughout with our dependable electric fixtures.
ELECTRIC SHOP
Phone 4344 1135 Fort St.

DANCE

AT

National Guard Armory

Saturday, March 18th

Admission 50c

Ladies Free

Good Music Good Time

Given for benefit of Enlisted

Men's Club Rooms.

Sold at Electric Shop
Phone 4344
1135 Fort Street

JORDAN'S DRY GOODS
Fort St.

Fire in the plant of the Ryan Leather Co., Newark, N. J., caused $25,000 damage.

Try This New Delight Next Time

—Pack a half dozen or so individual bottles of "Loju" Loganberry Juice in the hamper on your next jaunt out into the country.
—Mention this novel new drink to your guests or the family on the way out.
—Watch the smiles come when "Loju" is opened. Hear the exclamations of delight! "My, isn't the flavor great! And it does not have that overly-sweet, heavy taste of most fruit juices." That's because of the natural citrus acid which gives it a tang all its own.
—In asking your grocer for Loganberry Juice, say,

Loju
OREGON WASHINGTON

Loganberry Juice

NEW WAYS TO SERVE "LOJU"
Take "LOJU" in the Thermos—If you like, chill the "Loju" Loganberry Juice and take it with you on your outing trip in the Thermos Bottle.

Henry May & Co., Ltd.
QUALITY GROCERS
Fort Street Distributors
Turn the little disc to 1-2-7-1.

MODART CORSETS Front Laced

It's Style Must be Seen--It's Comfort Felt

THEY are unexplainable. A comparison with any other make is the only positive proof of MODART merits. The MODART Corset embodies, we believe, all any woman can expect of a corset—style, comfort, expert workmanship and a high quality of materials throughout. The boning in MODARTS will not rust or make a permanent bend at the waistline. It is made of clock spring steel—the most perfect corset boning ever produced. All MODART Corsets lace in front, because, in a corset, front adjustment is the correct method of adjustment. The absence of laces at back gives form and wonderful smoothness in gown fitting.

All day—at whatever task you may be engaged; for athletic sports—for social functions—a MODART Corset gives you a supple feeling of ease, buoyancy and freedom.

We positively guarantee every MODART Corset to give the highest degree of satisfaction in wear and shape-keeping qualities.

HOTEL STREET

SACHS'

FORT NEAR

We Are Specialists In Hawaiian Goods

This store carries a large stock of things typically and picturesquely Hawaiian.

For instance:

Calabashes,
Other Articles of Koa,
Hawaiian Jewelry,
Souvenir Spoons,

Gold Medal Ukuleles and Method.

Pay us a visit!

H. Culman Co., Ltd

A. S. Cunningham, Mgr.
Hotel at Fort St.